Kiwanis Education: Circle K International is a sponsored program of Kiwanis International. Circle K is a service club for collegians and has about 10,000 members on some 500 university, college, and junior college campuses. Circle K affairs are largely managed by its members, who hold annual conventions and elect officers at both the district and international levels each year. We have the opportunity to co-sponsor the Seattle U

Circle K with the Seattle Club. All we have to do is find someone that will attend all of the Circle K meetings, two would be better!
